About

When Cassandra said “I Do” to her husband Rick, they were not only merging their families, but also their financial practices – a Marriage and Acquisition! She set out on a mission to better understand God’s word about investing so that she could educate her clients. In her messages, she shares what she learned that transformed not only her business, but her life.

Personal Values Statement:

Cassandra is passionate about motivating Christians to:

- Understand the basics of investing without all the confusing financial jargon.
- Repair the disconnect between God’s word and your financial portfolio.
- Invest purposefully in businesses that reflect our faith beliefs, as an act of worship.

I Found Jesus in the Stock Market

In Cassandra's signature talk, she shares the story of how her journey to learn about Biblically Responsible Investing transformed her life and opened her heart to Jesus.

Once she started reading the Bible and learning what God says about investing, she discovered that she was unknowingly profiting from business practices that opposed her faith. (And you may be, too!)

How Are You Managing God's Money?

Because God owns it ALL, stewardship is really about the other 90% of the time, talent, and treasure God has blessed us to enjoy. How we learn, give, save, spend, plan and invest are all ultimately spiritual decisions. Learn how to become a Biblically-responsible investor and how doing so can impact our culture and, most importantly, deepen your walk with Christ.

Praying With Our Dollars: How Investment Decisions Can Help Change the World

Many Christians are unknowingly investing in companies that are in direct conflict with Biblical values and their charitable giving intent, while they are unaware that opportunities to invest in God honoring companies do exist. Discover the radical, culture-changing power of Christians investing together and how you can be a part of it!
